IT'S A KNOCK OUT!

Cambridge meets its old adversaries Oxford and Peterborough to fight it out in a gamut of games which will decide who goes forward to compete for international honours in Europe.

Southport will be the neutral host for this home international of "Jeux Sans Frontieres" on 12th August, 1975, where the British winners will take on some of their Continental rivals before going on to the finals in Belgium.

This year's teams have been selected from more than 100 towns throughout Britain, from the Isle of Man to Cornwall, St. Ives being the first heat on the 6th April, and our own heat being the last, so that by the time you read this programme we shall know who the winners are to meet in the next round.

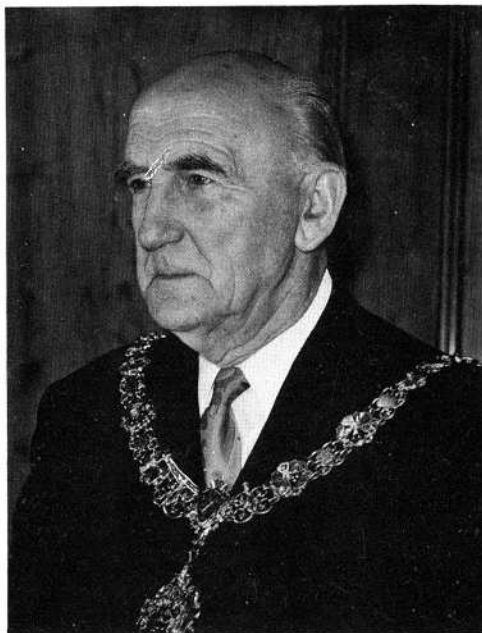

The games are a mixture of water obstacles, comedy relays, spectacular contraptions, crazy ball games, and the mini-marathon of Fil Rouge (red thread) as the Europeans call it. For the international contest the rule is that the games are a closely-guarded secret until the day of the event.

Who thinks them up? Throughout the winter months, producer Barney Colehan and designer Stuart Furber have been sifting through ideas sent in by viewers, suggestions from other countries, and of course, some of their own. If Stuart has a pre-occupied look today it's because he's responsible for the successful working of all those wonderful contraptions.

The BBC's "It's a Knockout" competition has become an established feature of the country's summer entertainment programme and is "compulsory" viewing for millions of people. Its success, and its continuing popularity with all age groups, is undoubtedly due to its content of imaginative, healthy competition combined with excitement and spectacle. The two university cities of Oxford and Cambridge are traditional rivals in many fields. "It's a Knockout" provides yet another. The inclusion of our near neighbour, Peterborough, makes it a more interesting, three-cornered affair. I'm sure this will give us an exciting and thrilling contest.

May I, on behalf of the citizens of Cambridge, welcome both Oxford and Peterborough to our City on this occasion. I doubt if, in this competition, "playing at home" gives us any advantage. May the occasion provide keen competition, good sportsmanship and, even more important, real enjoyment for teams and spectators alike.

P.J. Warren Mayor of Cambridge.

Welcome to the Competitors and Organisers from Oxford and Peterborough and to their supporters. Also a big welcome to all the supporters of the Cambridge Team. We hope you enjoy the events today. The staging of this final leg of the current "It's a Knockout" competition here in Cambridge has only been made possible by the quite splendid co-operation, assistance and involvement of so many people both in Cambridge and outside. The competition has rightly developed a national stature but such a reputation is only maintained on this scale by the absolute dedication of competitors and the total involvement of many organisers, officials and helpers.

The success of the event here in Cambridge is the product of all those contributions, a perfect example of team work.

May I, on behalf of the Amenities and Recreation Committee, express my sincere gratitude to all those who have helped in order to guarantee today's excellent event.

Councillor M.J. Rooney

Chairman, Amenities and Recreation Committee

The Chairman, Directors, Players and Supporters of the Cambridge City Football Club, welcome you to their ground which has been, for many years, a focal point for sport in this area.

The older members of the audience will remember it from the days when "the City" were a leading amateur club and when the bank holiday athletics held here were a major feature of East Anglia's sporting calendar. Now "the City" are members of the Southern League, and like all small clubs, suffer the ups and downs that go with the attempts to be accepted into the Football League. Television in general has its bad effect on sport as well as the good effect of bringing the best of all aspects of sport to our fireside, many thousands who would never see a cup final or an international game are now, through this media, familiar with the great names of our sport and here, this afternoon, we are witnessing a phenomenon, a competition created by television especially, for their audiences.

We are happy to see you here, helping to create a new, twentieth century sporting event.

The Chairman of the City Football Club

Cambridge

Although it is famous for its University, Cambridge began much earlier as a Roman camp overlooking the river ford (now Magdalene Bridge) and not far from the "Knockout" ground.

The Romans were followed by invasions of Saxons, Danes and Normans, who all added their bit to the town, which was now expanding where the present city centre lies. After all these invasions by armies, the people of Cambridge probably didn't realise the even greater effects that would result when they accepted some scholars who had had to flee from Oxford after trouble with Oxford residents.

Within a few years, a University was being established in Cambridge. Since that time the University has become the great attraction of the city, with an array of courts and fine buildings, lawns sweeping down to the river, and a succession of attractive college bridges. Most of the older colleges lie in a group between the river and the city centre, and visitors may walk through them, and take in at the same time one or two of the old city churches such as St. Bene't's and the Round Church.

Before and after the College Backs, the river passes the city's commons and open spaces, suitable for picnics and games. Here punts and rowing boats can be hired, and there are swimming pools, tennis courts, a bowling green and a putting green.

Eddie Waring

Eddie has been a top B.B.C. personality ever since TV came to the North in 1951, becoming a household name in covering Rugby League, one of B.B.C. TV's finest regular outside broadcasts.

Born in Dewsbury, Eddie played soccer, Rugby Union, Rugby League - and was a wrestler too.

Eddie usually gives a special blow-by-blow account of the mini-marathon contest which can be a vital tie-breaker in a tight contest. "For me", he says, "the programme really comes alive when we go into Europe. The atmosphere is electric, the competition intense, and yet so enjoyable. It's an exciting show to do."

Barney Colehan Producer

Barney, who has produced everything from religion to Rugby League for television as well as every "Good Old Days" spectacular since the first one back in 1953, is once again at the helm as "It's A Knockout" enters its 10th year. Barney has been with the contest since it started and "Knockout" without Barney is unthinkable.

Stuart Hall

Stuart Hall, who made his "Knockout" debut in 1972, presents "Look North", the B.B.C. North West week-night TV magazine programme in Manchester, and makes frequent appearances on the network in "Nationwide."

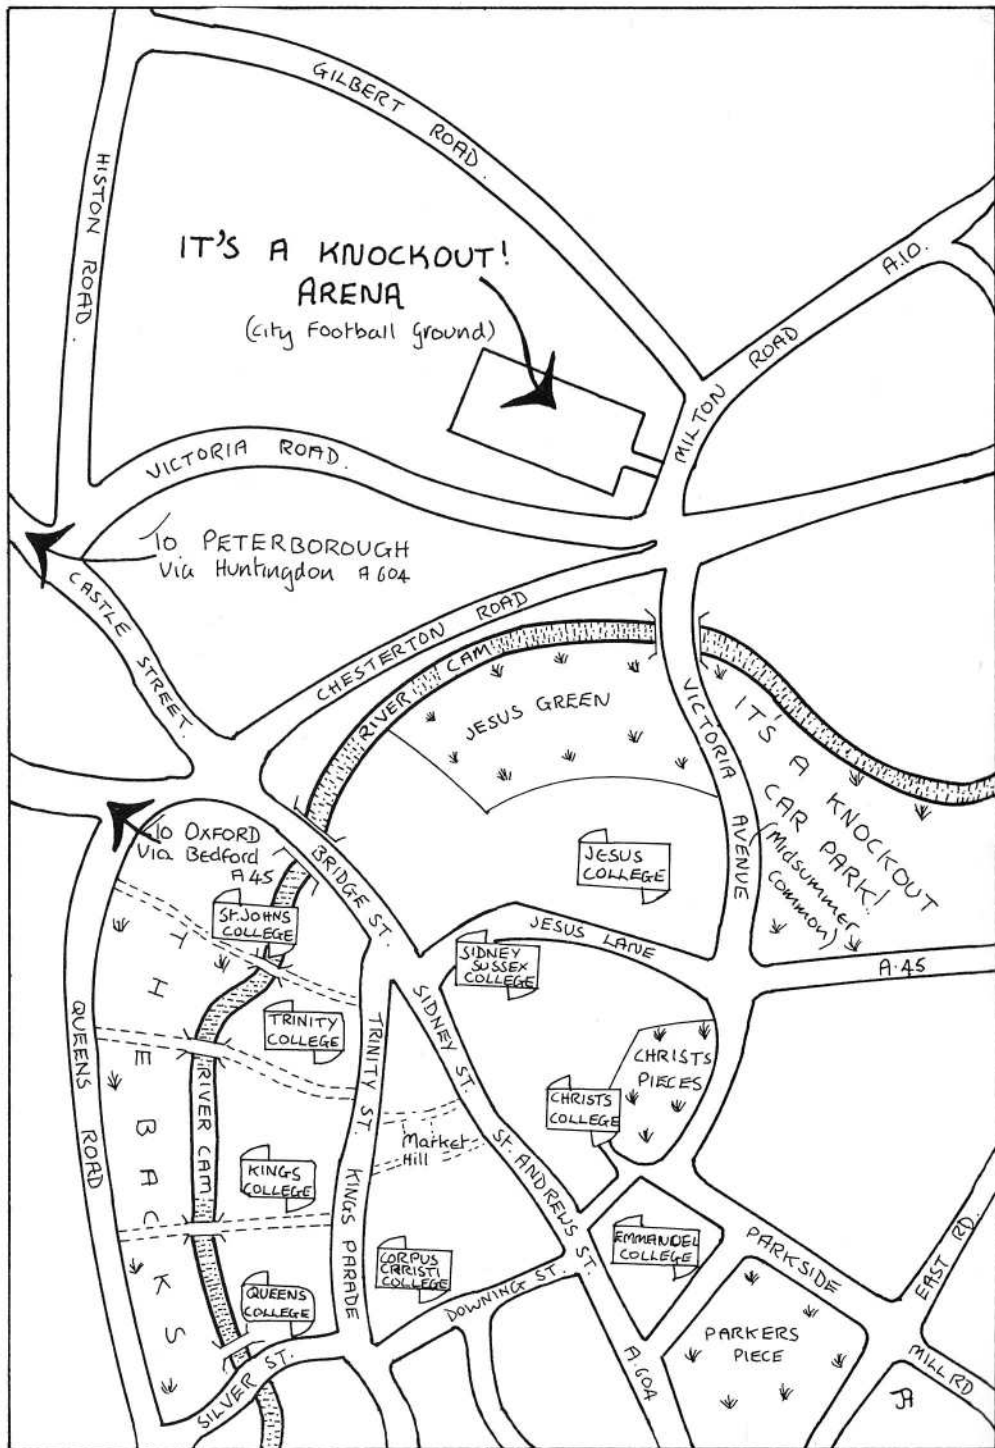

A Lancashire lad, he first broadcast in 1958 as a radio contributor in "Sports Spotlight". He has reported on soccer, cricket, tennis, motor racing and motor cycling, as well as current affairs. He sees "Knockout" as essentially a "Fun show" and is determined to make it as entertaining as possible for competitors and viewers.

Arthur Ellis Referee

Arthur Ellis, from Halifax, one of the best known soccer referees in the world, has officiated in practically every country that plays first-class football. He refereed World Cup ties and 73 Internationals in his time, and became the first English referee to be awarded the Gold Badge of F.I.F.A.

Mike Swann, who joins Arthur on the whistle, is from Banbury and is a former "Knockout" team captain and coach, and a fanatical supporter of the series.

CAMBRIDGE

Mike Boardman (Team Manager)

Mike has a very strong commitment to physical education and recreation with a career background as a physical education teacher, and before he came to Cambridge (where he is Deputy Amenities and Recreation Officer responsible for recreation) he was the Manager of the Churchill Sports Centre in Bristol. Now that he is in Cambridge Mike misses the fell walking and rock climbing which are two of his keenest interests. However, he has made up for it in part by being a playing member of the Shelford Rugby Club.

Terry Welham (Cambridge Trainer)

Terry has been a well known local sportsman for many years. Educated at Chesterton Senior School he represented the county at football, boxing, cricket and swimming. After leaving the R.A.F. Terry joined the Police Force where he is now a Police Training Instructor. A registered international coach with the British Judo Association, he is himself a 3rd Dan Black Belt. Terry has the added incentive, while training the team, of hoping to see some of his Police cadets playing a major role in Cambridge's quest for victory.

2 STRETCH AND THROW

2 heats of 1 team 2 males, 1 female

The two men are attached by strong elastic. They take turns to run up the course. Having achieved the required distance, they will be able to throw a ball against the target which, when rebounding, can be caught by the girl in the net provided. The girl is also connected by elastic. The team catching the greatest number of balls will be the winners.

4 BALLOON CATCH

2 heats of 1 team 2 males, 1 female

The two men are each equipped with a long pole on the end of which is a disc. With these they catch the balloons thrown to them by the girl. The balloons will be filled with water. Having caught a balloon, the men must carry same up the course and deposit it into a container. The team with the greatest number of balloons in the container at the end of the game will be the winners.

6 SWINGING LETTERS

2 heats of 1 team 2 males, 1 female

The object of the game is for the "swinging" man to hang the letters - given to him by the girl - on a board in order to make the required word. The second man is the pusher. The girl must remain behind a given line when passing the letters to the man. The winning team will be the one that is able to complete this in the shortest time.

The Pye Group began in Cambridge in 1896 and now, with nearly 25,000 employees across the world, Pye is still firmly based in the Cambridge area.

7 TO THE RESCUE

1 heat of 3 teams 2 males, 1 female

Firstly the object of the game is to climb the net - each team member taking an inner-tube. Having negotiated the net, they must then throw the inner-tubes over the target as illustrated. The teams make as many runs as possible during the game. The winning team will be the one that has successfully thrown the greatest number of inner-tubes.

Pye is proud of its involvement in an area of history and scientific tradition

MARATHON BEACH BALL BALANCE

2 males 1 female

The men, whilst balancing on a plank over water, have to throw beach balls through a number of hoops and catch same whilst remaining on the plank. The first man gets off the plank after successfully throwing and catching at each hoop and allows the second man to go. Trying to knock the beach balls 'off course' are the opposing girl team members - one girl from each team. They do this by throwing small rubber balls. Shielding the men from the throwers will be a net. This net will, however, only protect them to a certain height. The winning team will be the one that is able to throw and catch the greatest number of beach balls through the hoops.

Note: Only one hoop has to be negotiated on the first and last two Marathons.

Roger Herbert (27) (Oxford Team Captain)

Roger began his sporting career as a schoolboy in Buckinghamshire. Although his main interests were basketball and football, it was in athletics that he eventually represented England's schools in the Schools International against Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. Roger went on to become the southern counties 440 yds. youth champion. He joined the police service in 1966 and after a short break continued with his sporting activities, playing football for Oxford City Police and taking part in other events. However, it was once again in athletics that he made his major contribution, representing the British Police in the European Police Athletics Championships and becoming the British Police 100 and 200 metres champion. Roger and his team look forward with relish to taking on their traditional rivals, Cambridge, with the added incentive that they must also beat Peterborough to get through to the next round.

Nicola Sparkes (19) Oxford's Girl Captain

Nicola is proud to be the joint captain of the Oxford team, particularly as they are competing against Cambridge, extending a rivalry to the towns which has existed between the Universities for many years. Educated at Burford Grammar School and presently engaged in a years teaching practice at a local school: she will shortly be entering Lady Mabel College, Rotherham to read English and Physical Education. At school, Nicola, participated in all sports and represented the school in most of them. Although she played hockey she found that the conflict in technique between this and her first love Golf led her to concentrate on the latter with more than a little success, including the 1972 Berks, Bucks and Oxon Junior Championship and in 1973 becoming the youngest Oxford Ladies Champion at 17. In the following year she was ninth in the Amateur Women's under 23 Competition which qualified her for the British Match Play and Stroke Play Tournaments, ultimately reaching the last eight of the Wills International Tournament in 1974. With her male colleague Roger Herbert, Nicola looks forward to leading the Oxford team in friendly rivalry with Cambridge and Peterborough.

Although today's programme in the current B.B.C. series "It's A Knockout" is one of the first functions I have attended since my election as Lord Mayor of Oxford on the 19th May, it has been my pleasure to have been involved in the arrangements in Oxford since the B.B.C. invited us to take part.

The members of the Oxford team are looking forward not only to competing against Cambridge and Peterborough but also to creating new friendships with all of the competitors, officials and supporters. They join me in thanking the host town, Cambridge, for its hospitality and also the B.B.C. for its courteous advice throughout and for the opportunity to participate. We all know that the end product will be first class entertainment which the programme seeks to give its spectators and viewers.

PETERBOROUGH

I am very pleased indeed to have the opportunity of saying how delighted we are in Peterborough to be taking part in this series of "It's a Knockout". We are especially pleased to be here in Cambridge, and on behalf of the citizens of Peterborough I offer greetings and best wishes to our friends and on this occasion rivals - from Cambridge and Oxford. From personal experience I know that the members of our team have worked extremely hard to prepare themselves for the Contest. I know they will be a great credit to Peterborough and I would like to express my thanks to them all whether competing or supporting in some other way for the enthusiasm with which they have entered into the spirit of this occasion. And great good luck to them all!

Finally can I add a special word of thanks to the authorities at Cambridge who are acting as hosts to us today. It has undoubtedly meant a great deal of hard work for them but I am sure we all appreciate the contribution they have made to the success of this event.

*J. Farrell Mayor of Peterborough
1974-1975*

Peterborough City Council, Department of Leisure and Amenities and the "It's a Knockout" Committee with to thank the following for their assistance:-

D.J. Constant, Leisure & Amenities Officer.

The Principle, Peterborough Technical College.

Noel Cantwell, Peterborough United Football Club.

Fisherprint Ltd. Peterborough
Peterborough Standard.

Peterborough Art Society

Peterborough Sports Council

Mike Vincent, Director, Hereward Sports Shops.

The Wirrina Stadium, Management.

Evening Telegraph & Citizen & Advertiser.

Susan Bates, for training our Cheerleaders.

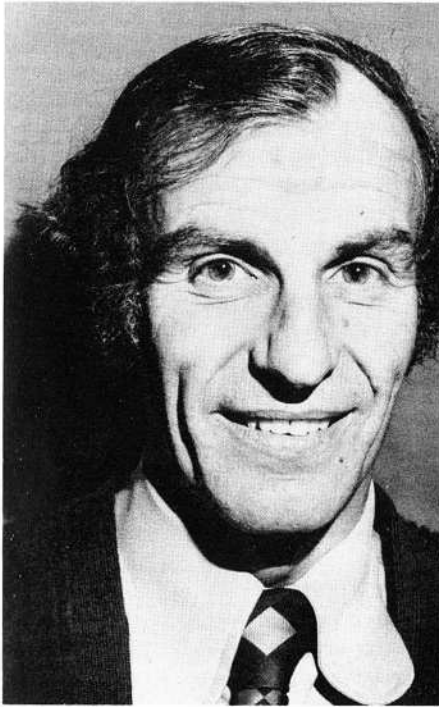

The Advertisers for their support.

To all volunteers who have helped and trained for the "It's a Knockout" team, for giving their time and support so willingly.

Ken Winfield Councillor

Grateful thanks to Ken Winfield for his help and assistance given to the committee.

It can never be said that Peterborians are slow to take up a challenge, for when the B.B.C. invited Peterborough to take part in "It's a Knockout" well over 60 people applied for the opportunity of representing their town. Since then they have been undergoing vigorous training under the expert instruction of David Owen, Lecturer in Physical Education at The Peterborough Technical College, ably assisted and encouraged by John Poole, Chairman of the Peterborough Sports Council.

There is no doubt in the minds of the Committee that whoever is selected to represent Peterborough, they will be certain to give our competitors "The Dons" the challenge of their lives.
