"This Battle's sure to be a Knockout"

Welcome to the international Battle of Bradford. We can promise you a fun-packed afternoon, with six teams (including a bevy of Bradford beauties) fighting it out for the honour of becoming Bradford's own top team. As usual, we shall be doing our best to keep the best of order.

As well as the battle there are sideshows and displays, food and drink—and it's all in a good cause. So settle down, enjoy yourselves—and let battle commence.

"It gives me particular pleasure to add my support to the Battle of Bradford. Half the proceeds will go to the British Legion—a very worthy cause—and half will go to the Bradford's War on Cancer, which is my own special appeal during my year of office.

Every penny raised here and throughout Bradford will help to pay for research into chemotherapy—a treatment of cancer, pioneered in Bradford, which has already saved about 100 lives. We are particularly grateful to the committee which organised this event, and to you, the people of Bradford and district, for supporting it."

AN AFTERNOON OF FUN.. LAUGHTER

The Battle of Bradford is strictly for fun . . . unless you're a Yorkshireman. It's aim is to give you a good time, raise some money for very worthwhile charities—and prove that a team of Bradfordians can lick teams from anywhere else.

There are six teams. From the Scots-based Reo Stakis organisation come the Norfolk Gardens Gourmets, ten boys and girls dressed in white.

The French based Novotel Group, of course, has sent the Froggies, six boys and four girls. They're the ones in pale blue and white, and red hot pants.

The Victoria Hotel, part of the Trust Houses Forte Group (motto : The Biggest Smile in Europe) have raised the THF Smilers. Look out for the mixed colours with a dash of Royal Blue.

You can't miss the Battling Babes, a bevy of beautiful birds dressed in bikinis. Mind you, if you look closely at the team, you might spot a distinctly un-feminine figure . . .

Upholding the honour of Bradford — the six-million-dollar Bradford Bionics, a flaxen-haired group of the city's finest specimens of manhood.

Pennine Radio are deserting their Forster Square studio and turning up as the Two-Thirty-Fives.

That's the line up. May the best team (Bradford of course) win—and let Battle commence.

A Big Thank You !
